

PRIVACY NOTICE

Copenhagen Infrastructure Partners

1. Background and purpose

At Copenhagen Infrastructure Partners (“CIP” or “we”), data protection and confidentiality is a priority. This Privacy Notice sets out guidelines for how we collect, use and manage personal data.

For the purposes of this Privacy Notice:

“Personal data” has the meaning set out in Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 (“GDPR”);

References to “CIP” in this Privacy Notice mean Copenhagen Infrastructure Partners I K/S, Copenhagen Infrastructure Partners II P/S and Copenhagen Infrastructure Partners P/S, each of Langelinie Allé 43, 2100 Copenhagen, Denmark, and each a “CIP entity”; and

The CIP entity you are working with is considered the “data controller” in respect of the personal data it collects, uses and processes in connection with this Privacy Notice.

2. Individuals about whom personal data is collected

CIP collects personal data relating to a variety of individuals, including representatives of suppliers, investors, business partners, counterparties, advisors, service providers, contractors and board members of CIP-affiliated entities.

3. Types of personal data collected

We may collect and use various types of personal data where it is relevant for our overall business activities, including your name, gender, photo, job title, photographic identification, email address, home address and other contact details, details of your business and other interests, academic and professional qualifications and experience, third party references, communications with you, feedback that you provide and financial and payment information.

4. How personal data is collected

Your personal data is primarily collected directly from you when you contact CIP, sign up for press releases on CIP’s website, or otherwise during CIP’s business relationship with you. We may also collect personal data from third parties we have a business relationship with, including suppliers, current and potential investors, business partners, advisors, service providers and contractors.

5. Use of personal data

The personal data we collect will be used to:

- Administer sign-ups for press releases
- Process and analyze statistics relating to our business
- Administer, operate, maintain, and improve our services and business relationships
- Administer our relationship with you, including to respond to your inquiries
- Provide any services or information you have requested and information about our services
- Comply with applicable laws and regulations

We will only use your personal data to send marketing material if you have given your explicit consent, unless legislation allows us to contact you without your prior consent.

6. Legal basis of processing

We may process your personal data on the following bases:

- When it is necessary for the drawing up or performance of a contract with you (GDPR, Article 6 (1), litra b)
- If we have your consent (GDPR Article 6 (1), litra a)
- If it is necessary for the legitimate interests of CIP or a third party (and if your interests, fundamental rights and freedoms do not prevail over those interests) (GDPR Article 6 (1), litra f)
- To comply with a legal obligation (i.e. rules laid down by courts, statute or regulation (GDPR Article 6 (1), litra c)

7. Transfer to other data controllers

Under specific circumstances it might be necessary to transfer personal data to accountants and legal advisors, who will be considered “data controllers” in respect of this data. Furthermore, with reference to legislation, it might be necessary to transfer personal data to public authorities or the police, who will be considered “data controllers” in respect of this data.

In the case of a re-organization, full or partial sale of CIP, any disclosure of personal data will be carried out in accordance with current legislation for the processing of personal data.

Personal data contained in CIP’s CRM-system can be accessed by all relevant CIP-affiliated entities with just business reasons. The individual entities are acting as independent data controllers for the processing of the personal data in question.

8. Disclosure to data processors

Your personal data may be disclosed or shared in the following circumstances:

- To third party service providers, who have been engaged to provide services to us, including IT service providers, providers of online communication, consultants, legal advisors, other professional services providers and providers of file storage platforms
- To CIP-affiliated entities and internal CIP personnel who need the personal data for business or legal reasons

These abovementioned parties only process the personal data on behalf of CIP and in accordance with the instructions of CIP.

9. Transfer to countries outside the EU

We may transfer personal data to recipients located in countries outside the EU.

The transfers of your personal data would be subject to the terms of the standard data protection clauses annexed to the EU Commission Decision 2004/915/EC of 27 December 2004 for the Transfer of Personal Data to Controller established in Third Countries under the Directive 95/46/EC, or any successor standard contractual clauses that may be adopted pursuant to an EU Commission decision.

10. Deletion of personal data

We will delete your personal data when we no longer need it for one or more of the purposes set out above in section 5 or for regulatory reasons, e.g. bookkeeping regulations. However, the data may be processed and stored for a longer period in anonymized form.

11. Security

We have implemented security measures to ensure that our internal procedures meet our security standards. Accordingly, we strive to protect the quality and integrity of your personal data.

12. Your rights

You are at any time entitled to be informed of the personal data about you that we process, but with certain legislative exceptions. You also have the right to object to the collection and further processing of your personal data. Furthermore, you have the right to have your personal data rectified, erased or blocked. Moreover, you have the right to receive information about you that you have provided to us, and the right to have this information transmitted to another data controller (data portability).

13. Withdrawal of consent

You may, at any time, withdraw any consent you have given, and we will delete your personal data, unless we can continue the processing based on another legal basis. If you wish to withdraw your consent, please contact us at cip-gdpr@cip.dk or +45 70 70 51 51.

14. Amendment of data etc.

If you want us to update, amend or delete the personal data that we have recorded about you, wish to get access to the data being processed about you, or if you have any questions concerning the above guidelines, you may contact us at cip-gdpr@cip.dk or +45 70 70 51 51. You may also write to us at the following address:
