

Do you want to join a global leader in renewable energy infrastructure investments?

Copenhagen Infrastructure Partners is looking for Junior Analysts to join our Fundraising Team in CPH

About CIP

CIP is a fund management company specialized within renewable energy infrastructure projects – particularly offshore wind, onshore wind and solar energy.

We are pioneers with a proven track record from some of the world's largest offshore wind projects and other major energy projects in Europe, the US, and Asia Pacific.

Our team of more than 130 specialists across more than 30 nationalities has a unique combination of industrial skills and investment experience covering all aspects and phases of energy infrastructure investments, project execution and asset management.

Fundraising Team and Responsibilities

Join our Fundraising team of ~10 people, where you will be involved in all aspects of the investor journey:

- Market and investor analysis supporting business development, design and structuring of new funds
- Due diligence activities in the fundraising for new funds across blue-chip institutional investors globally
- Presentations and communication for investor meetings and events

The team has recently raised the world's largest dedicated renewables fund with potential investments of EUR 10-14 billion.

The position is part-time (~15-20 hours a week) with an opportunity to influence hours and timing according to your studies and exams.

Large community of Junior Analysts

CIP has a strong and large community of +30 Junior Analysts supporting all departments across CIP

We are looking for a final year BSc or first year MSc student with strong emphasis on the following characteristics:

- Team player with strong work ethic and 'can-do' attitude
- Strong academic performance driven by analytical and communication skills
- Profound interest into fundraising in renewables infrastructure
- Thrives by having responsibility and working in a fast-paced environment
- Curious and creative mindset with an ability to work independently

If you would like to become part of the team building value that matters, please send a brief cover letter, resume and transcripts to Kelly Bork (kbo@cip.dk) as soon as possible.
